reACTion - theatre workshop - FAQ
29th - 30th May 2010
Bolsjefabrikken

Who can attend the workshop?

The workshop is open to everybody who is interested in any form of performing arts. Studies in the related field are not a requirement, however we seek people who have openness and strong motivation to challenge themselves by performing.

Can people attend the workshop with theoretical interest only?

There will be open discussions about different forms and examples of socially active theatre and the experiences of the workshop. These discussions will be open to everybody, we encourage people with theoretical interest in the field to come to these discussions.

What does it mean: theatre as a form of social activity?

We believe that by creating a production (whatever it means) we are a model for the society. On one hand through a model one can gain experience in a small scale about the processes and phenomenons of the society. On the other hand theatre can reflect on social issues and initiate changes by revealing new viewpoints and confronting various ideas and actions.

Is it a protest beside or against Ungdomhuset?

No, it is not an aim of the workshop to take a position in this public affair. We don't want to judge the situation, rather to focus more on personal aspects and reveal new viewpoints and opinions through this.

How is this workshop introduction to Föld Theatre's international theatre workshop at Roşia Montană, Romania, August 2010?

Roşia Montană is a village in Romania which incorporates in a very special way major issues of our modern societies. You can read more about our workshop at: http://foldszinhaz.hu/Rosia_Montana2010.pdf

On one hand we will experiment on the Copenhagen workshop with the same method of theatre making. On the other hand participants with whom we find our cooperation fruitful will be invited to the workshop in Romania.

Is it possible to participate one day only?

Yes. People are welcome to participate either both days or only on the 29th or the 30th of May. The programs of the 2 days are connected, so people are welcome to come for both days, but if you can join only on one of the days you are also welcome. We will pay attention that the program will be experienceful both ways. Participating less than one day is not a possibility. However the discussions are open for everybody, you may come for those.

How much is the participation fee?

For one day it is 100 DKK, for both days it is 140 DKK. The price includes a Barbeque which will be held at the end of the workshop, on Sunday evening (the 30th of May). The discussions are open and free for everybody.

How can I apply for the workshop?

Please write an email to Anna Høgsbro Laursen at: ahola.travel@gmail.com, Please specify if you want to come for both days or only for one, and if the last option specify the day as well. Application deadline is the 28th of May.
